BENJAMIN F. LARNED. Acting Paymaster General. APPROVED ; W. L. MARCY,

Secretary of War. The following letter from the Secretary of War, gives his construction of the law above referred to, which, with the foregoing regulations, will govern in the settlement of all claims under the law :

WAR DEPARTMENT. Washington, August 3, 1848. perintendent of common schools and accompanying bill on the Sin :- In reply to your interrogatories in relation to the construction to be given to the 5th section of the "Act to amend an act, entitled . An act supplemental to an act entitled an act providing for the prosecution of the existing War between the United States and the republic of Mexico, and for other purposes;" passed the 19th ultimo, I present the following, as my views on the subject.

The proviso restricts the benefit of the section to those than a mere muster into service is undoubtedly required. Recruits who had not left the United States for the seat of war, or if they had left it, but had not joined their respec-38 tive companies, are not entitled to the extra pay allowed 9 by the fifth section of the act above referred to. 42 Volunteers, although mustered into service, if they were not marched or sent to the seat of war, or to positions where service was required of them, cannot be said to have been in actual service, and do not, therefore, come within the provision of the law for extra pay. This view of the law will exclude from extra pay the troops which were called out by General Gaines, and discharged before being sent to Mexico or Texas; the troops organized under the On motion of Mr. Line, said bill and report were referred call of Colonel Curtis, and discharged before they went to Mexico, or were not put on duty there; and the regiment of volunteers, called for from Missouri in 1816, for Santa ers to merit a share of patronage. T the late session of the Board of Directors, the following mendments were made to the By laws, which it is believed will give more promptness to the construction of the work, and be more satisfactory to subscribers than our former regulations, as they give a just compensation for the use of the money, before the stock will yield a dividend, when subscribers elect to pay out their stock in full, without taking the four years credit, First. Any subscriber who has heretofore subscribed personal stock, either cash, lator, or materials, may pay the same out in full, at any time within six mon hs from this time, by paying, (including what has been paid) in cash, twenty dollars for each share, and new subscribers may either take the credit heretofore allowed for four years, or may at their option, pay cash in full of twenty dollars, for each share. Second. All subscribers who have retained, or who shall retain, the right of redemption of lands, may redeem the same at any time within one year from the date of the deed, by paying in cash, twenty dollars for each share of stock issued upon the lands. Third. Land subscribers may redeem by paying the principal without interest, and subscribers of improved farming lands will
